

Community Impact Bucks' COVID-19 Briefing #38

Workshops and webinars – quick and accessible ways to grow your skills

Short regular briefing from Community Impact Bucks

19 May 2020

Dear Sir/Madam,

A range of advice and training is available from both local and national organisations during lockdown. Many planned events have now moved online and, with the availability of both live and recorded webinars, access to training has improved for many as lockdown and time constraints have been overcome.

We have highlighted some upcoming webinars below, including the Clare Foundation's Middle Leaders' workshop series which starts tomorrow, and will publish the training and advice on offer during Small Charity Week in tomorrow's briefing.

Also remember to check our COVID-19 Advice for Groups page for tips and advice on funding, running your organisation, volunteering and local community response. For one-to-one advice or support, email support@communityimpactbucks.org.uk.

NATIONAL PROVIDED WEBINARS: UPCOMING AND RECORDED

NCVO is running several webinars in the next few weeks. If you can't attend, it is worth registering to ensure you get a recording. Forthcoming webinars are:

WORKSHOP SERIES FOR MIDDLE LEADERS

The Clare Foundation is running a series of workshops aimed at Middle Leaders within the charity / non-profit sector. These sessions cover a wide range of topics from supporting workplace well-being to building financial resilience to utilising CSR effectively to build corporate relationships. The sessions will culminate in a Battle of the Charities Pub Quiz open to all charity / non-profit employees.

Sessions will be held every Wednesday until early July from 1 – 2pm. The first will be held tomorrow (20th May) and focusses on Harnessing the Power of Kindness in Leadership. Further information on the series and to book can be found here.

BUSINESS SUPPORT WEBINARS – VARIOUS TOPICS

Bucks Business First has pulled together a list of webinars which they, and their members, are currently running to provide practical support and help during this time. For further details, visit Bucks Business First.
