

Horses Helping People CIC - Technical Support for Creating Online Course

Horses Helping People CIC is a therapeutic horsemanship centre on the Beds/Bucks border. Therapeutic horsemanship benefits a wide range of adults and children, including those with behavioural challenges, mental health problems and learning difficulties. It helps to improve mental and physical wellbeing and social skills.

www.horseshelpingpeople.co.uk

Aim of role	To provide technical support, advice, and guidance for creating and establishing our online course.
Main internal contact	Debbie La-Haye - Director
Start date	ASAP.
Time commitment	to be agreed
Location	home -based
Main tasks	To advise and assist our team with knowledge and guidance about how to create content for online course; best platforms to use; any information that we may not have thought about!
Skills/Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience with using Microsoft Office and databases • Ability to work as part of a small team • Good communication skills, both written and verbal.
What we can offer you	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A great opportunity to use your existing skills, give back to the community and add to your CV.
Additional information	We run training courses for people interested in therapeutic horsemanship as a career. This helps our organisation to be sustainable. Pre-pandemic, our courses were held at the farm. Now we are realising the potential for reaching a wider community by providing an online version of the course. Going online will enable us to provide subsidised or free places to people from disadvantaged backgrounds. We now have Lottery funding to do this, so we're looking for a volunteer/volunteers with experience in any part of the process, ie. Choosing a platform, content delivery, costing, marketing, accreditation, etc. We would require references/testimonials plus examples of similar work you have undertaken.
Get in touch	If you think this opportunity could be for you, please contact: Debbie La-Haye info@horseshelpingpeople.co.uk